HERE'S THE STORY

2008 annual report

) RAGS TO RICHES. A member of CommunityAmerica won the lottery. Before his newfound wealth, other local banks and investment firms did not welcome him as a customer. Now, they would do just about anything to have his business. But he chose to bring his $1.3 million winnings to his credit union. Why? Because he had always been treated extremely well at CommunityAmerica, even when he didn't have a lot of money.

FROM THE CHAIRMAN

In just a few words, here's the CommunityAmerica story in 2008: Success, Security, Strength and Superior Service.

By comparison, the story in 2008 for so many financial institutions across the country was about failing, doors closing, taxpayer bailouts, and sadly, leaving some customers penniless. CommunityAmerica had a markedly different story to tell.

CommunityAmerica avoided sub-prime mortgage lending, and our strong capitalization was never in doubt. In fact, the National Credit Union Administration defines well-capitalized credit unions at 7 percent equity to asset ratio or above — and CommunityAmerica ended the year at 11.79 percent. However, as part of a cooperative system, credit unions support each other in good times and bad. As a result of this business approach, CommunityAmerica took a charge at the end of the year in an effort to help stabilize the industry as a whole. While this ultimately resulted in a loss for CommunityAmerica, our overall results were strong, and we are poised for future success.

We also finalized the conversion of our merger with Midwest United Credit Union, retaining an overwhelming majority of members, bringing our total membership to more than 177,000. We consistently sought new opportunities to deepen existing member relationships by helping members find ways to increase personal savings and reduce debt. By focusing on people, not profits, we avoided negative headlines and provided an attractive alternative for more members.

More than 3,300 members attended our family-friendly Annual Meeting at CommunityAmerica Ballpark in Kansas City, Kan. Attendees shared personal, touching stories of how CommunityAmerica, through its vision and commitment to building financial success together, made a significant difference in their lives. Our team was inspired by those stories and is grateful for the opportunity to continue serving our members.

Finally, for more than a decade, CommunityAmerica has returned money back to its members in the form of an Ownership Participation Dividend. Our success is your success, and this is one of the many ways we share it with you, in addition to providing competitive rates and a convenient branch network.

As we move into 2009, expect more great stories from your Credit Union. And as always, thank you for your continued support.

Regards,

Allison Waggoner Chairman of the Board

FROM THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE

CommunityAmerica's story in 2008 was one of success. As a result of our prudent and conservative management, CommunityAmerica was poised to post a modest profit, before taking a year-end impairment charge to help stabilize the credit union system. The Credit Union continued to offer members a great portfolio of products, services and rates, while returning money to members through an Ownership Participation Dividend. And we accomplished many other important achievements in the process.

As always, CommunityAmerica is guided by a memberled model that places member benefit first. Our measured, strategic approach to become the primary financial institution for a larger share of consumers resulted in the opening of three new branches, bringing our total to 29 locations. This creates even more convenience for existing members and provides prospective members a nearby place to experience the advantages of credit union membership.

As a civic leader, CommunityAmerica continues to focus on community service in the areas we serve. This year our employees contributed more than 2,200 volunteer hours to more than 65 non-profit organizations. We also set the city standard for employee-based fundraising for Junior Achievement of Middle America, and we again received the Dora Maxwell Award for Social Responsibility from the Missouri Credit Union Association.

As an Employer of Choice, while other companies in our market were laying off employees, freezing wages and discontinuing 401(k) matching, CommunityAmerica continued to invest in its valued team by delivering a more robust 401(k) program, offering merit increases, and expanding training offerings to retain and attract bright new talent to help us best serve our members.

Perhaps the accomplishment I am most proud of is the strides we made in our commitment to improving financial literacy. CommunityAmerica has always been passionate about breaking the cycle of debt, and is even more so in the current economic environment. In driving this initiative forward, branch managers regularly coach members struggling to regain their financial footing, by providing solutions that allow them to reduce debt and plan for their future. We also reach out to the schools in our areas, as well as non-profit organizations, and teach budgeting and savings fundamentals that help clear a path to financial freedom. It is our sincerest hope that we are able to make a difference and influence these individuals to develop healthy, life-long spending and savings habits.

This year we successfully completed our first Financial Makeover program, helping four Kansas City area families become financially fit through personalized coaching from our own financial experts. The result? All four families were significantly better off financially than when they started during an incredibly tough economic year. Through this initiative, thousands of others learned valuable tips they could apply to their own situation, making our impact far reaching through exposure to weekly blogs, radio and TV interviews.

Ours is a compelling story we hope you'll tell your friends and family, and one we expect more and more people to personally experience as we continue to demonstrate the many ways we start where banking stops.®

Regards,

Dennis E. Pierce Chief Executive Officer

in IT'S ALL ABOUT THE TEAM. From bake sales to raffles and pancake breakfasts, our employees pull together to raise money for financial literacy. The fundraising efforts did not go unnoticed. A Junior Achievement board member was amazed at how 'on-board' our organization was and the creativity we displayed. We 'set the bar' for other organizations to reach.

I'M A LIFER.

I've been a member of the credit union since 1989. They actually pay me to bank with them rather than nickel and dime me. I don't pay any fees, the ATMs are free and I hope that never changes. I really love CommunityAmerica and would never go to any other bank.
